Book Review: A Greener Vision of Home. Cultural Politics and Environmental Reform in the German Heimatschutz Movement, 1904

Nolan examines efforts to transform production and consumption, factories and homes, and argues that economic Americanism was implemented ambivalently and incompletely, producing, in the end, neither prosperity nor political stability. He argues that God made us to be royal stewards of public governance from the outset and that the biblical story of God's creation, judgment, and redemption of all things in Jesus Christ has everything to do with politics and government.

Among the topics addressed are industrial employment, retirement, life styles of older women, and biological research.

A Greener Vision of Home

Sheldon Wolin's Politics and Vision inspired and instructed two generations of political theorists after its appearance in 1960. When Paul Schultze-Naumburg resigned as President of the Federation in 1914, Fritz Koch was also dismissed as managing director.

And how is our sense of these terms changing under the pressure of feminist analysis? The elites' project was rife with ironies: in Riyadh, they employed world-renowned experts to fashion an imagined history, while at the same time in Mecca they were overseeing the obliteration of a thousand-year-old topography and its replacement with commercial megaprojects. German History, 17 2 , 301-302. Each chapter includes text boxes and exercises and is well illustrated with cartoons, line drawings, and photographs.
