Christmas Tales of Flanders by Jean de Bosschère

She fell on her knees, and implored the mermaid to tell her if she had seen the little girl who played on the sands every day. Only I cannot go with you in my working clothes, and without washing my hands and brushing my hair. He stumbled along the road as well as he could, and on putting his hand in his pocket, found, to his great surprise, that he had only five farthings.

The overseers answered him that it would take at least a year, employing a thousand workmen a day, to execute such a work. It's our hope that your item gets where it's going as soon as possible, but given the factors involved, this is only an estimate. Smith turned round, all the procession did likewise and re-entered Paradise.
