Continuing Care Retirement Communities (CCRCs)

Some accommodations include both supportive living and designated supportive living spaces, but AHS determines access to the designated supportive living spaces within the building. The road to recovery can be long and lonely, which is why these programs provide such valuable support. If they don't, then some resident services may be cut.

These contracts are designed to protect the rights of the older residents, but they also give the owners of CCRCs considerable influence as to what long-term care benefits older residents receive.

Continuing Care Retirement Communities (CCRCs)

Continuing Care Contract Statutes Health and Safety Code, Section 1770 et seq The Health and Safety Code is made up of nine articles pertaining to continuing care law. CCRCs offer a long-term continuing care contract that provides for housing, residential services, and nursing care, usually in one location, and usually for a resident's lifetime.

Continuing Care in the Community Amidst COVID

States generally license CCRC providers, monitor and oversee their financial condition, and have regulatory provisions designed to inform and protect consumers. Services offered include health services, meals, personal care, housekeeping, transportation, and emergency help.
