Mapping the Mosaic

He would respond to those who, offended by his candour, insulted him, feeling very disappointed by their petty views, which were often expressed in euphemistic, vulgar, and ignorant terms. Very attached to his students at the secondary level, Marie-Victorin continued to teach them on a half-time basis at the school in Longueuil until 1928, for his new status did not make him lose sight of his main concern: to raise the level of education of his own people, regardless of their academic attainment.

Naturelle 15P , and Marcelle-Gauvreau 7P have been gathered together by the Service des arch. What was needed, in his view, was a new plant guide based on modern scientific principles.

Exhibition : Récits naturels

This work is in the public domain in the United States of America, and possibly other nations. Many of them are more than willing to have visitors come and see them at work in their workshops or studios. Far from letting himself be paralysed by this barrenness, Marie-Victorin undertook a program of exchanging samples and information with recognized specialists around the world.
