Maya Stelas

In this colony there are said to be more than six hundred thousand people, either Portuguese or descended from Portuguese, creoles, mulattoes, and a mixed race between Portuguese and Brazilians. The capital which had before supplied the colonies with but a part of the goods which they wanted from Europe, was now all that was employed to supply them with the whole. Looking for reasons why the First World War still looms large amongst people in India, it becomes clear that that period of history is inextricably bound up with the history of the independence movement.

Inglorious Empire: what the British did to India

The greater part of the citizens, or those who governed the greater part of them, fought in defence of their own importance, which, they foresaw, was to be at an end whenever the ancient government should be re-established. Second, despite their high degree of geographic dispersion, Jewish populations from Europe, North Africa, and the Near East were less diverged genetically from each other than any other group of populations in this study.

How was India involved in the First World War?

Viking stories tell us a great deal about life and beliefs in Viking times. The great profits of the Venetians tempted the avidity of the Portuguese.

Smart city colonies set to get smarter, unsmart get nothing

At Mercury Bay, Cook again landed, set up the Union Jack, carved the ship's name and the date upon a tree, and claimed the land for His Majesty. But the reverse of this is their interest as merchants. But the political institutions of the English colonies have been more favourable to the improvement and cultivation of this land, than those of the other three nations.

The Wealth of Nations

So at last Dupleix was called home in disgrace. Looting from Looters The Vatican in the 15th century, partitioned the world between Spain and Portugal.

How was India involved in the First World War?

In what way, therefore, has the policy of Europe contributed either to the first establishment, or to the present grandeur of the colonies of America? This series is an in-depth look at racism in the UK in 2020 and beyond.
