However, waiting for several years to ascertain who are long term recipients is not the best targeting strategy. At best, it would function as one part of a carefully crafted labor force strategy that provides proper training, adequate day care and income supplements for the working poor. That Keynes cites not only an historical fact but also a logical necessity was brought home to me by a law client of mine whose business I was trying to rescue in Chapter 11 bankruptcy proceedings.

Wading into the welfare mess

Last month, pollsters at Angus Reid Group Inc. As pictured here, their relationships with their mothers oscillate between affection and rebellion, closeness and the desire for independence.

New Labour, Class, and Social Change

They perch, side by side, in a restaurant booth, uneasily out of place, wearing their position as welfare recipients in a small Ontario town like uncomfortable coats. Two years later, the doctor Larry Brown illustrated his work Living Hungry in America with images provided by Steve Haines, a newspaper photographer for the Providence Journal.
