Michael Norman Manley

Graduates from Immaculate Conception, St. Manley was defined as the quintessential charismatic leader who was able to connect with people on the ground.

Michael Manley: The Making of a Leader by Darrell E. Levi (1990)

The author is very sympathetic to Manley, and Manley helped to facilitate his work.

Bodies on the Doorstep: Jamaica in the 1970s

To obtain loans, the prime minister agreed to reduce the value of his country's currency. This Friday, December 12, 2014, the Jamaica National Movement and the Jamaica Progressive League will hold a panel discussion on the legacy of the former Jamaican Prime Minister, Michael Manley. We settled the issue quickly.

Michael Manley: His legacy of education for empowerment

Manley won the election of 1989.

Jamaica's Manley Is Pivotal Leader

Manley had abandoned his socialism and pursued policies not too distant from those of his rival. Although Michael Manley was a strong advocate of workers having a voice at the workplace, inequality remains a serious problem in contemporary Jamaica.

Michael Manley: His legacy of education for empowerment

Each side has sought to bring the United States into the electoral battle, Manley has charged that the CIA actively sought to destabilize Jamaica and prevent his reelection in 1976, although he has refrained from joining his supporters in making similar charges this time. We don't believe that a little island can necessarily always have the same interest as a great, big, highly developed industrialized society like the United States.

Michael Norman Manley

He had not changed his basic social goals but he had come to different views as to how they could best be realised.
