And fields were fought in Heaven; wherein re- mained For what could else? London: Printed for John Baker, at the Black-Boy in Pater-noster Row, 1710. Alecto incites , the Queen of Latium and the wife of Latinus, to demand that Lavinia be married to noble Turnus, and she causes Ascanius to wound a revered deer during a hunt. An acute observer and profound thinker, with what our critics call a poet's heart and eye, he sets forth the gentle and beautiful traits of character in the saintly heroes of his time with unmistakable relish, and in a style graceful, picturesque, at times dramatic.
