Dānu darbi — Vikipēdija

Fár hyggr þejganda þorf Few heed the wants of the silent. Auxit curae eius fiduciam adiecitque studio spem simplicitas virginis proprio permissa consilio libertasque feminæ politioribus blanditiarum delenimentis palpanda, non modo abduci facilis, verum etiam obsequi præceps.

Proverbs in Saxo's Gesta Danorum

The princess is seduced also by the love potion concocted by Götvara: Drawn into loving her suitor by the secret workings of the philtre, she answered that she expected more from Frothi's talents in the future than his present reputation indicated; he came of a famous father and every man's nature tended to reflect his birth. Nemo sterendo victoriam cepit, nec luporum quisquam cubando cadaver invenit.

Gesta Danorum — Wikipedia Republished // WIKI 2

When Grep returns to court in defeat, Frothi counsels him to restrain his wrath: The king on the other hand suggested he should reflect a while in his wrath; hasty schemes very often misfired, nothing could be carried out both quickly and warily, and frantic ventures mostly turned against their devisers; lastly it was improper for a few men to be attacked by a great swarm. Crebro corrixantes porcos conciliavere lupi. Saxo's argument is not altogether easy to follow.

Gesta Danorum

Animat te frustra internus regionis livor, quem plerumque hostilis explodit adventus. Prævalidum enim oportet alitem esse, qui prædam aliis unguibus extrahere cupiat.

Compendium Saxonis & Chronica Jutensis

Nobody has ever won victory by snoring, nor has any sleeping wolf found a carcase.

Gesta Danorum

Qui enim obtinere gestit, obniti debet; ictus ictui opponendus est livore pellendus.
