Review

This review is written by an Elsevier Student Rep. This is an approach that suits many candidates and adopts a format that examiners prefer. It provides, in one colourful and attractive volume, complete coverage of all the most common medical cases that will be covered in PACES and similar exams.

Review

The cases covered neatly mirror those recognised as occurring frequently in MRCP PACES and as such the focus of the curriculum is neatly appropriate for candidates taking their membership exams.

PACES for the MRCP : with 250 clinical cases (eBook, 2013) [mikhmon.us.to]

The book is divided into three major sections covering areas of the body, each organised according to the possible instructions that candidates are likely to encounter in the exam. Written as a systematic text which exactly complements the format of the exam: Station 1: Respiratory System, Abdominal System Station 2: History Taking Skills Station 3: Cardiovascular System, Nervous System Station 4: Communication Skills and Ethics Station 5: Skin, Locomotor System, Eyes, Endocrine Uses a practical, user-friendly, case-based format Each system in Stations 1,3 and 5 starts with a detailed examination scheme followed by a unique Recognition-Interpretation-Discussion format for each case. The recent introduction of the 5-station PACES Progressive Assessment of Clinical Examination Skills exam inspired a great deal of apprehension, so the appearance of the first edition of Hall's PACES for MRCP was greatly welcomed by candidates and became an immediate success.
