mikhmon.us.to: The Later Diaries of Ned Rorem 1961

Symphonies were what composers composed, therefore I was a composer.

The Later Diaries Of Ned Rorem: 1961

How disarmed I was at sixteen by the screeching mess halls of Northwestern; or at eighteen, while a student at Curtis and rooming with Shirley and her mother, when every supper became an exercise in retaliation between grown women, during which I knit Quaker brows and shut Norse ears to preserve good digestion, now knowing that such scenes are standard Jewish ritual to help the digestion! How can I pause to objectify the motion? Even more, I'd love to hear your music.

The youth rebellion, the Vietnam War, Race Riots in the cities. French table conversation, at least at the start of a meal, is, of course, about the menu at hand. Cannes also proved different meaning too much the same after the years, and I no longer like myself here.

The Later Diaries of Ned Rorem, 1961

I kept an engagement to lose my virginity. Why are you others so flippant? The Business Lunch does not exist here. These hardly unique impulses constitute my only conscious motivations, and the self-expression that laymen like to hear about is all contained within them.

Then with a few sips of Chablis and a taste of saucisson which, they say, is ground donkey fat the tetanus symptoms recur worse than before.

Euterpe's less harmful but less social.

What natural law decrees that eye must move from left to right, up to down? The Suite of Pieces for Easy Orchestra is half done. Now his much-celebrated diaries are another matter.

The Millions: The Later Diaries of Ned Rorem 1961

Still the weekly dinners over the hill with Tony Gadarillas. Yet from 1949 through 1951, Fez and Marrakech were so naturally welcome that I understood Chicago to be the stranger. Around each corner there are no longer possibilities for love.
