ستَكُونُ فِيَنِ الْفَاعِدِ فِيهَا خَيْرٌ مِّنْ الْفَانِيْمُ وَالْفَانِيْمُ خَيْرٌ مِّنَ الْمَاشِيِّ وَالْمَاشِيِّ
Abu Huraira reported: The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said: فيَهَا خَيْرٌ مِّنَ السَّاعِيِّ مِنْ شَرَفِ لَهَا شَتَّشَرَفَةٌ فَمَنْ وَجَدَ مُلْجَأً أَوْ مَعْلَدًا فَلْيَذْبَحْ
There will be tribulations during which a sitting person will be better than the one standing. Hence, if those people carried out what the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him asked them for, then fighting against them would be prohibited ... Thus, this hadith does not mean that the Prophet peace and blessings be upon him was commanded to fight against all people only for this objective, as this meaning contradicts the religious texts and the consensus of Muslim scholars.

One who recognizes their evil and hates it will maintain his innocence, but one who is pleased with it and follows them will be sinful. Say: We believe in the revelation that has come down to us and in that which came down to you.

Debunking Cheap Slander

Never did one of them proclaim his opinion except that Allah caused his neck to be struck. They declare other Muslims to be unbelievers by misinterpreting and misapplying the verses of the Quran. He should not worry beyond that.
