Critical Realism and Composition Theory : Donald Judd : 9780415524001

Bhaskar sees philosophy operating at a transcendental level as Kant employed the term. The homeless were considered a blight upon society.

Critical Realism and Composition Theory (Routledge Studies in Critical Realism, 7)

But one might still argue that we can never escape the social context of knowledge production in that our theories condition our perceptions and cognitive practices. These structures distribute resources and authority to different people within a social setting, which in turn enables or constrains the actions they can take. If they have not done so, I am not the one to be blamed.

Critical Realism: A Framework to Understand Organizations

The actions people take tend to either reproduce structures back in the real domain or change those structures.
